DESCRIPTION

The Perfect Balance Between Road and Track.

Auto Restelo has the pleasure of presenting the Lamborghini Huracán Tecnica, one of the most visceral and pure creations from the Sant'Agata Bolognese house. Strategically positioned as the perfect connecting link between the road comfort of the EVO and the radical track performance of the STO, the Tecnica is a true masterpiece of engineering and aerodynamics. This model assumes added historical relevance for being one of the last opportunities to acquire the legendary purely atmospheric V10 engine, an engine block on the verge of extinction that defines the golden age of modern supercars.
